SQL Portfolio Project – AdventureWorks Database (JOINs & Subqueries)

1. Which customers have generated total sales revenue above the average revenue generated by an ordering customer?
2. Which finished goods have on-hand inventory below the average total inventory held per stocked product?
3. Which customer accounts have never placed a sales order?
4. Which sales territories have total order revenue above the average territory revenue?
5. Which salespeople are below the average SalesYTD for their assigned territory?
6. Which product offers have a discount percentage above the average discount for their product subcategory?
7. Which vendor-product pairs have a standard purchase price above the average supplier price for that same product?
8. Which pending or approved purchase orders exceed the average open purchase-order subtotal for their vendor?
9. Which employees have a current hourly rate above the current average rate in their department?
10. Which individual-customer orders are larger than that customer's average order value?
11. Which currently sellable products have never appeared on a sales-order line?
12. Which sales orders have freight charges above the average freight charge for their territory?
13. Which sales-order lines were sold below the average list price for the product's subcategory?
14. Which manufacturing routing operations have actual costs above the average actual cost for the same product?
15. Which products have a current list price above their average historical list price?